"The House of a Thousand Candles" the current play now on at Poll's. It is a play of extraordinary drawing powers, one parron, who saw it for the first time at the initial performance on Monday, has attended every performance since. In conversation with one of the attaches of the house he said: "there is a sort of fascination about the piece that I cannot resist. According to the plans made at the special meeting of the Pacific Engine Co. last evening a grand sheep roast will be tendered the members of the interest and you are to ge and hear it over and again." And there you are who come for the first time at weird mystery and are prepartogo home and look under the hoping to find some mystery. When they see the play, with the limitilizently told story, and there who cannot but exclaim: "It early a wonderfully constructed in with a story well told, and leel better after hearing it."

The City

According to the plans made at the special meeting of the Pacific Engine Co. last evening a grand sheep roast will be tendered the members of the Thomas J. Jones Association of Newark, N. J., on the occasion of their visit to this city on Wednesday. The roasting of the sheep will be delayed until the arrival of the Newark men that they might see the modus operand. The New Jersey firemen will leave Newark at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning on the Commodore, arriving in this harbor at 4 o'clock. There they will be met by the Pacific Engine Company in full regalia and headed by the Wheeler & Wilson band and will march to Germania hall where they will be entertained.
